IT ALL STARTED AT A TIME WHEN COMPANIES WEREN'T FORMED IN GARAGES.

BANDS WERE.

It was back in the good old days – 1993 – when Jeff Patterson and a couple of friends formed the Ugly Mugs. They yearned to play their finely honed tunes like "Cold Turd on a Paper Plate" and "Abracadaver" for more than a few drunks in a bar. So, they hacked together a neat little web site called the Internet Underground Music Archive, IUMA for short. (As you can see, they suck at naming bands, songs and web sites). The idea caught on, and soon a few thousand of their friends' bands joined them.

Today, IUMA is the one place to post your music where actual musicians are watching out for you – not weasels watching the numbers. You have your own URL with your band name first. And a custom web page where you can post all your band info and MP3s, sell CDs, create message boards, fan lists, and of course, get e-mail from your fans – all free.

Why put your band on a "cookie-cutter page" from corporate nimrods who know nothing about music, when you can get it up with us?

Tired of slogging through piles of bad music to find one new song you actually like? That's the Internet music scene for you. Well, we're putting our feet down and our money where our mouths are.

Unlike those other download sites, we're not a group of techies, and we're not amateurs. We're a bunch of well-respected, street-wise industry talent scouts who've decided to apply our ability to pick winners to the chaos that is Web music.

What does that mean? We're the first New Music Web site that A&R's every single submission. Our submission process ensures that you will find only the best new unsigned, indie label and major label baby acts from around the world on MP3DOM.com.

New music that doesn't SUCK

MP3DOM.com

We do the work so you won't have to. And by the way, the site's free for listeners and artists.

Come see us at booth #4, call us at (212) 662-2052, or email us at Info@mp3dom.com.
Artists, their representatives and labels can submit material through the site.

Don't be shy.

The music's in every one of us. Which is why we've created a 140,000 square foot building to celebrate the affect of music on the human spirit. Welcome to Experience Music Project, a place to explore and interact with the creation, innovation and rebellious expression that has defined American popular music. So throw your head back and belt it out. Or at the very least, visit our website at www.experience.org and find out what's going on inside Seattle's beautiful, curvy building that is Experience Music Project.

DON'T LET YOUR CAREER GET CANCELED BY DRUGS!

BRAD STEINBACHER - Lead singer for the up and coming band Uncle Turnip.
CANCELED 12/4/98

Brad's career was just taking off. His band Uncle Turnip's second album, Taste, was about to be released by a major label. The album's first single was already in heavy rotation on MTV and radio stations across the country. Then, one night after an appearance on MTV's Total Request Live, Brad went out and "scored" some drugs at a local bar...

Brad's biggest night was also his last.

ASSOCIATION FOR AFIM
INDEPENDENT MUSIC

THE CONVENTION: "AFIM is an invaluable opportunity to network with fellow labels, distributors and retailers. I got so much more out of the conference than I expected. I highly recommend the AFIM conference for anyone who wants to keep up with the rapidly changing marketplace and share ideas with their peers." - Dan Storper, Founder/CEO of Putumayo World Music.

THE CRASH COURSE: "I spent $250,000 and 4 years learning what I learned here in 1 hour for $175." - Robert Lambert, ShadowMan Entertainment.

It's a GREAT time to be independent!

But you need to keep pace with the dramatic changes in this industry. Who has the info you need? ▶ AFIM, the Association For Independent Music (formerly NAIRD), is the premier trade association for indie labels, distributors and retailers. We've been committed to providing the independent industry with the tools it takes to succeed since 1972!

The annual AFIM convention includes panels on current industry issues, nightly showcases at the Indie Lounge, small group sessions which address specific genre issues, Trade Show, special event parties, and much more.

The AFIM Crash Course is an intensive 1-day seminar which teaches the nuts-and-bolts of the independent music business. Held during convention and taught by industry veterans, the Crash Course covers the basics of sales, marketing, and distribution.. Audio tapes of the 1999 Crash Course, presented in Atlanta this past May, cost an incredibly low $75 and can be ordered from AFIM.

AFIM MEMBER BENEFITS include Advertising Discounts in over 25 trade and consumer publications; access to Industry Resources including the annual AFIM Directory; incredible Networking opportunities; free subscription to Indie Music World, Discounts on convention fees and advertising in AFIM publications; Group Discounts on car rentals, conference calling, broadcast faxing, phone service; and much more.

AFIM 2000: Plan now to be there for the AFIM 2000 Convention, May 3 - 7 in Cleveland Ohio

MAGNET PROFILE:

MATT WERTH

HOME: Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
AGE: 21
PROFESSION: MAGNET intern
HOBBY: Skipping college classes in order to sleep off nights of debauchery.
LAST BOOK READ: Pitney Bowes Postage Meter Operating Guide.
LATEST ACCOMPLISHMENT: Hired an intern to do his work for him because he "wanted to invest more time in relaxing."
WHY I DO WHAT I DO: "I used to work at a burrito place, but this is a little bit better in some ways."
PROFILE: Matt is originally from Little Rock, Arkansas. Lots of interns may meet President Clinton, but Matt spent his time at the White House petting Socks the cat. When his parents found out he was interning at MAGNET, they were so ashamed they had to move to Sacramento.
QUOTE: Where exactly is Sacramento, Matt? "It's in California."
HIS MAGAZINE: MAGNET®. "After a long day of looking at MAGNET at work, it's nice to look at MAGNET in my small apartment in the bad part of town."
